AIME
FOR THE ARCHERS
OF
St. George Fields.

Containing the Names of all the Marks in the said Fields, with their true distances according to the dimensuration of the line.

Formerly Gathered by Richard Hanna. And now corrected by Thomas Rich, and others.

London: Printed by N. Howell for Robert Minchard and Benjamin Brownsmith, and are to be sold at the sign of the Man in the Moon in Blackman street, 1664.

Arch Bodl. A. III. 47

BIBLIOTHECA · BONNENSIS

Rules to be obſerved and Practiſed by all thoſe that exerciſe Shooting in the Long Bow.

1 FOr finding your mark it muſt be within every mans reach.

2 For Whites or blacks you muſt have but one in a Game unleſs they be all content, and if you ſhoot at any looſe white, and it be ſtricken out of ſight, it is no mark.

3 For the height of ſtakes, although the wood be above the pin, yet you are to meaſure at the pin if there be any, becauſe it is put in for that purpoſe.

4 Shooting at a buſh or black, whatever you find higheſt in it (being within the compaſs of the mark) you are to take for the height.

5 If in meaſuring a ſhoot the difference be ſo ſmall it cannot be decided, then that Competitor ſhall win the ſhoot that is beſt at next mark.

6 If in meaſuring a ſhoot the mark be ſtirred out of its place, he loſeth the ſhoot that removed it.

7 If at coming to your mark you claim two or more, and the oppoſite ſide draw their Arrows, you can have no more then you firſt claimed, although your Partner when he comes challengeth more.

8 If you name one mark and ſhoot at another, you are to loſe your ſhoot, and the other are to follow at the mark named.

9 If your Arrow break you may meaſure at the neereſt piece that hath wood and head, or wood and feather.

10 If

10 If you have any miſ-hap, as nocking amiſs, if you can reach your arrow with your bow you may ſhoot again, if it flee further it is a ſhoot.

11 In ſhooting at Rovers, you muſt ſtand no further from your mark then you can reach with half your bow: but at Pricks you are permitted to ſtand two bows before your mark, and as much behind it as you pleaſe.

Note,

1 That the firſt number ſhows the ſcores, the ſecond the yards.

2 The marks are to be taken all going into the field: and if you be coming homewards look for the mark you ſhoot at, not for the mark you ſtand at.

3 The marks are placed from the left hand to the right, leaving out none from 10 ſcore to 17 or 18 ſcore; and you must alwaies look for your mark from the East to the West.

4 Sundry marks have two or three words for their names: Look alwaies for the mark in the first word; as suppose you look for Minchards Lyon, look not for Lyon, but for Minchard: and so in the rest.

A Table of the Names of the Marks in St. Georges Fields.

Note that

The numbers on the right hand as you look on the Table, refer to the Pages in the Book; and the numbers on the left hand, agree with the numbers set on the Marks. So that coming to any of the Marks, and finding the number set thereon, then seek the like number in this Table on the left hand, and you have the name of the mark against it.
